Court Order Ails To End Rail Strike

BULLETIN
Washington, Dec. 14—(P)—The post office department today considered a partial embargo on parcel post mailings in view of the spreading strike among railroad yard employees.

Philadelphia, Dec. 14—(P)—The Pennsylvania Railroad ordered sharp curtailments in its passenger service today in the face of a spreading strike of railroad yard workers. A source close to the situation said freight was "piling up" in yards throughout the PRR system, particularly at Chicago and Washington.

Chicago, Dec. 14—(P)—A sudden, crippling railroad strike read from Chicago to Washington today despite a federal court order to end the walkout. The yardworkers' work stoppage halted passenger service on all rail lines serving the nation's capital. A similar walkout has tied considerable freight and hit passenger traffic in Chicago, at crossroads of the nation.

There had been a hint from the Railroad Brotherhoods that the strike might spread. The first walkout, in Chicago, took 10,000 men out of the yards yesterday. A federal judge last night ordered the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen to end the one-day strike. The government, which urged the nation's carriers last night after a strike threat stemming from a wage hour dispute, said the stoppage was "seriously interfering with the war effort."

The walkout, which the union termed unauthorized, virtually halted freight movement. It caused some passenger train cancellations and disrupted other industries. Continuation of the stoppage threatened a major delay in the Christmas mails in Chicago, which is a major transfer point for transcontinental mails. The steel industry was hit almost immediately. Some blast furnaces were banked. There were shutdowns and curtailment of operations throughout the Chicago industrial area.

At the same time, presidents of our operating rail unions, including the BRT, said in Washington the Chicago strike may spread unless White House and government mediation efforts are stepped up to settle the wage-hour dispute. They blamed the delay in reaching an agreement on John R. Feelman, President Truman's assistant who has been conducting negotiations. They said the White House has been told of the "unrest" among rail yard workers.

Home Front Mobilization Is Discussed At Second Conference At White House

Washington, Dec. 14—(P)—President Truman discussed home front mobilization with a second congressional group today and was urged by several of the legislators to go ahead with wage-price controls.

There was no word as to whether Mr. Truman had made up his mind about that, but Senator Maybank (D-SC) said he was "hopeful" the president will declare a national emergency and put into effect "whatever wage-price controls can be administratively handled."

Attending today's White House conference were the leaders of the state and house banking committees, the senate-house economic committee, and the atomic committee. Key administration officials concerned with economic matters also were present. It was the second such meeting that Mr. Truman has held preliminary to reporting to the American people in a radio address at 10:30 p. m. tomorrow on what steps the government will take to meet the world crisis and the increasing threat of world war.

Democratic and Republican congressional leaders met with Mr. Truman yesterday.

18-Year-Old Lad Believed To Have Sustained Fracture of Skull In Auto-Sled Collision

A near fatal coasting accident, with one 18-year old boy in serious condition, and two 13-year olds in fair condition at Warren General Hospital, occurred on Central avenue near Lincoln about 8:15 p. m. yesterday.

Most seriously injured in the sled-automobile crash was Carl Stapfer, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stapfer, 118 1/2 Dartmouth street. His condition is listed this morning as poor, and it is thought that he is suffering from a skull fracture. He has not been moved for x-rays yet because of his serious condition.

In fair condition are Theodore G. Huber, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore R. Huber, 121 Russell street, and Allen Bergman, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Bergman, 205 Dartmouth street.

Young Huber sustained a fracture of the left leg, possible fracture of the left hip, and abrasions about the left cheek. The Bergman boy is suffering from a fracture of the left leg, possible fracture of the collarbone and a large laceration of the left arm.

City police, who investigated, said that as nearly as they can determine from blood stains and dust on the snow covered street, the accident occurred on Central avenue about 20 feet south of the Lincoln avenue intersection. Driver of the car with which the boys collided was Axel Lundahl, 206 Russell street, who was proceeding north on Central avenue with the intention of making a left turn into Lincoln.

Mr. Lundahl told a Times-Mirror reporter this morning that he was driving very slowly at the time, because of the fact that he was shifting gears preparatory to making the left turn, and that he had no indication that the boys on the sled were approaching until he felt the bump on the car.

Police said that the left side of the bumper near the bracket was split about six inches by the force of the impact.

Only one street light is present on Central avenue above Lincoln, and there is a dark shadow north of Lincoln, making it almost impossible to see any vehicle not lighted. Police attach no blame to Mr. Lundahl for the accident.

All three boys were riding the sled, a brand new one with the price tag still hanging on a string on the guiding bar. The Stapfer youth was at the bottom of the pile attempting to guide the sled. Huber was in the middle and Bergman on top. Police said that it was impossible to control the sled in such a manner.

One of the boys told police that he said to Stapfer, "Do you think you can miss him?", and that was all he remembered until he regained consciousness in the hospital.

First on the scene of the accident were Perry W. Wiedmaier and his son, 208 Lincoln avenue; Mrs. George Hesch, McGee Place; and Russell Sheets, 122 Central avenue. The Peterson ambulance was called and two of the boys were removed in it, the third being taken to the hospital in Mrs. Hesch's car. They were attended by Dr. William Cashman.

Mr. Mike Egan said this morning that Central avenue had not been designated as a sliding street. It will be recalled that a few days ago, Lt. Egan issued a warning to youngsters about town to be patient a few days until wooden horses could be secured for the purpose of blocking off designated streets. So far, only Division street has been so designated, and that was not possible until horses were released yesterday from the Third avenue bridge repair job.

Lt. Egan pointed out that even with the horses placed on the streets, motorists were inclined to blow their horns and ignore the road blocks. He has asked for adult volunteers to patrol sliding streets with flashlights for additional safety, pointing out that the police force does not number enough men to do the job.

More Snow Flurries Reported In State

Pittsburgh, Dec. 14—(P)—Below freezing temperatures and more snow flurries kept western Pennsylvania in winter's grasp today although morning conditions improved in many areas.

After an overnight low of 26 degrees, the temperature is expected to hover around 23 tonight, rising to 34 tomorrow.

Group Finds Mental Health Program Of State Improving But Short Of Needs

Harrisburg, Dec. 14—(P)—Pennsylvania's mental health program is showing improvement, but it still has a long way to go, a citizens' report said today.

The Pennsylvania Citizens Association for Health and Welfare asserted that the "unmet needs" are still great.

The association made the statement in a review of Pennsylvania's mental health activities for the past four years.

"The administration in office during the past four years has considered progress in the state's mental health program one of its major achievements," the report said, adding:

"The still unmet problems and the yet unmet needs are so great that it would be easy to under-

SOVIET BLOC OPPOSE PLAN FOR A TRUCE

New York, Dec. 14—(P)—The United Nations assembly today approved an Asian-Arab plan for a Korean cease-fire despite Soviet bloc warnings that this would not end the fighting.

The vote was 52 to 5 with Nationalist China abstaining. The Soviet bloc countries cast the negative votes.

The proposal creates a three-man committee, headed by assembly president Nasrallah Entezam of Iran, and directs it to seek a basis for a truce. Entezam deferred naming the committee.

Russia's Jacob A. Malik vigorously opposed it as a move to give the United States and Britain a chance to prepare a new attack.

Polish delegate Stefan Wierbowski told the assembly the cease-fire proposal would not stop the Korean fighting. This had been assumed by most delegates as a result of the Soviet bloc opposition.

But some had clung to a slender hope that the Chinese Communists still might agree to a truce.

The 60-nation U. N. political committee adopted the measure yesterday 51 to 5, after a flood of gloomy predictions that World War III threatens unless the Chinese Communists heed the world organization.

Russia's Jacob A. Malik fought desperately to defeat the measure, sponsored by India and 12 other Asian and Middle East countries.

"He even half-promised that Chinese troops would quit Korea if all foreign troops—the United Nations forces—pulled out in accord with a Soviet proposal still awaiting action."

More Russian and Soviet bloc arguments were expected to delay a final assembly vote until late today.

The cease fire resolution would empower Assembly President Nasrallah Entezam and two others he names to find out what can be done to get Red China to agree to stop fighting.

THREE NETWORKS TO CARRY DEWEY SPEECH

New York, Dec. 14—(P)—A speech on the international situation by New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will be broadcast tonight over three nationwide radio networks.

The Columbia Broadcasting system and the American Broadcasting Company will carry the governor's address from 10-10:30 p. m. The Mutual Broadcasting System will present a delayed broadcast of the speech from 11:30 p. m. to midnight.

The titular GOP leader will speak at the annual dinner of the New York County Lawyers Association. He will outline his ideas on how the U. S. should meet the world crisis.

G. O. P. Candidate Concedes Defeat

Detroit, Dec. 14—(P)—Michigan's former Gov. Harry F. Kelly, Republican, has conceded defeat in his attempted comeback.

Kelly gave up yesterday to Democratic incumbent G. Mennen Williams in the recount of nearly 7,000,000 votes of the Nov. 7 gubernatorial election.

The tradition-shattering GOP defeat came after Kelly once had been declared the victor of Michigan's closest election.

Williams, 39-year-old soap fortune heir, thus will be inaugurated Jan. 1 as Michigan's first re-elected Democratic governor in 36 years.

The GOP quit as Williams' recount margin reached 4,243 votes. About three-quarters of the original vote had been recounted.

For the official record, however, Williams' original canvass margin of 1,154 will stand to mark the closest governorship fight in Michigan's 113-year history.

Borough's New Fact-Finding Committee On Flood Control Holds Its First Meeting

Initial steps to get first-hand information on the proposed Allegheny River Flood Control Reservoir at Kinzua were taken when the borough's fact-finding committee on flood control met for the first time yesterday afternoon at the Municipal building.

A resolution was approved to invite the project engineer to meet with the committee in the near future. He is H. E. Anderson, a native of Tidouche, who works out of the Pittsburgh District, U. S. Army Engineers office in Pittsburgh.

Anderson, it was reported, has handled much of the detail work in connection with the proposed Kinzua Dam ever since it was first authorized by Congress in 1936.

Committee members feel he will be able to provide a lot of valuable information on size of the dam, the reservoir area, cost of the project and other details.

Warren Borough Councilman Paul W. Yagge, chairman of the committee, presided at yesterday's two-hour session. Other committee members attending were Councilman Chris Maier, of the Fourth Ward; Borough Engineer C. W. Barwis; Borough Manager L. M. McConnell; H. C. Putnam, representing the Upper Allegheny River Improvement Association; R. W. Steber, representing the Warren Chamber of Commerce; W. G. Farin, representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce; F. M. Caughey, representing the Warren Service Clubs; and Bob Moorhead, representing the press. Two members of the committee, Councilman John Carbone, and August Keller, representatives of labor, were unable to attend.

Much of yesterday's session was devoted to a general discussion of the committee's purpose, and to drawing up of an agenda.

It is expected that the committee will meet frequently during the next several months to assemble all of the facts possible concerning the proposed Kinzua dam, and other possible measures to alleviate Warren borough's puzzling flood situation. When the facts are assembled, the committee will then endeavor to submit a recommendation to town council, which now has on its minute books a resolution opposing construction of the reservoir.

Chairman Paul Yagge reviewed some of the steps that have been taken in the past several years to find a solution to the flood problem. He called attention to official reports in which an engineer near made a survey of what is needed to protect Warren from floods in the way of dikes and river channel deepening. He also pointed out that the cost of such projects was far out of reach of borough finances, and that the U. S. Engineers have declined to recommend appropriations by Congress for local flood protection.

Dem Lawmakers Meet To Organize For Next Session

Harrisburg, Dec. 14—(P)—Democratic lawmakers met today to reorganize their leadership for the 1951 legislature.

The 20-member Democratic contingent in the senate is expected to pick Sen. John H. Dent (Westmoreland) as minority leader once again in the upper chamber. Republicans hold 30 senate seats.

Sen. Joseph M. Barr (Allegheny), minority whip in the 1949 legislature, is slated to succeed himself for the coming session.

In the house, Rep. H. G. Andrews (D-Cambria) was the pre-caucus choice for minority leader and Rep. John F. Stank (Northumberland) for minority whip. Democrats claim 87 seats in the lower chamber compared to 120 GOP members. There is one Democratic vacancy.

The caucus also will select Dent and Andrews as their choices, respectively, for senate president pro tempore and speaker. The move will be purely perfunctory because of the GOP majorities in both chambers.

Sen. M. Harvey Taylor (R-Dauphin) has been picked by a GOP caucus as the senate president pro tempore and Rep. Herbert Sorg (R-Elk) as speaker.

The officers will be formally elected at the Jan. 2 reorganization meeting of the General Assembly.

U. S. Sen. Francis J. Myers (D-PA) has been asked to speak at each the senate and house Democratic caucuses as has Richardson Dilworth, Philadelphia city treasurer.

TRIES TO THROW BABY SON INTO THE RIVER

Pittsburgh, Dec. 14—(P)—A student watchmaker faces a disorderly conduct charge today after police said he tried to throw his two-year-old son into the Allegheny river.

Police Sergeant James T. Flynn identified the father as J. P. Smith, 40, Flynn quoted Paul Crenshaw, 24, another student in the same watchmaking school, as saying Smith tried to toss the baby off Manchester Bridge. Crenshaw said he grabbed the baby and ran away. Police said Crenshaw quoted Smith as saying: "I'm tired of taking care of Jake (the baby). I'm going to end it all."

JET-POWERED AIR STRENGTH IS INCREASING

BULLETIN
Washington, Dec. 14—(P)—An Air Force spokesman said today there are indications the Communist air force is starting to wage all-out air war in Korea. A dispatch from Korea today said 24 Russian-made MIG-15 jet fighters and four American jet shooting stars exchanged fire near Shinuiju in northwest Korea. None of the American planes was reported damaged. The U. S. pilots said one Communist plane was hit.

Tokyo, Dec. 14—(P)—Allied forces pulled deeper into their northeast Korea beachhead today before the menace of an estimated 100,000 Chinese Reds massed on an arc around them.

Across the peninsula in the northwest near Manchuria the biggest jet-against-jet air battles ever fought were waged during the day. The jet dogfights rendered no clear-cut decisions.

(In Washington, an air force spokesman said the growing Red jet fighter activities indicated the Communist air force is starting to wage an all-out air war in Korea.)

("The pattern now unfolded may reveal a steady increasing tempo of air activity as additional aircraft become available from Communist China or the Soviet Union," the spokesman added.)

On the northeast beachhead the U. S. third division abandoned the town of Oro, six miles north of Hamhung, and withdrew into the slender perimeter strip extending another six miles to the east coast port of Lianjiang.

It is the United Nations' last stronghold in the northeast.

Puerto Rican troops attached to the Third Division dynamited three spans of a 500-foot concrete bridge over the Songchon river after Oro was abandoned. A railroad bridge and two other spans on the outer defense perimeter also were blasted.

These were the first reported large demolitions on the outskirts of the beachhead. Oro was in flames from pre-dawn fighting. This was believed to be the scene of a light Chinese probing attack reported earlier but not pinpointed. Enemy reconnaissance planes scouted the beachhead Wednesday night.

The tense beachhead was quiet Thursday. Riflemen and machine-gunners, testing their weapons in the dock area, caused one flurry of excitement.

A Red convoy of 100 trucks was reported moving south from the Manchurian border toward the Changjin reservoir, where thousands of Allied troops now at the beachhead recently smashed through Red traps.

Date For Grand Opening Youth Canteen Is Set For Saturday Evening, Jan. 27th

The long awaited grand opening of Warren's Community Youth Canteen has been scheduled for Saturday evening, January 27th. Announcement of this date was made last night after a meeting of the adult and youth executive committees in the YMCA.

The opening will be observed with an open house program to which the adults and parents are especially invited to see what has been accomplished so far in the Y annex, which has been converted from an empty golf building to a recreation place for the community youth people.

There will be a special program of entertainment followed by a canteen dance. The canteen will not be completely finished by then, but enough has been done so that it can be used; and the boys and girls are anxious to get their activities underway. Adults will be amazed at the transformation of the building into the youth center.

At last night's meeting presided over by Charles Koebly, it was announced by James Hengst, Y boys secretary that nearly $3,000 has been spent on the building thus far. This figure would be twice as much except for the fact that Jim and the young people themselves provided the labor for most of the work. Other interested adults have also donated their time and labor.

The money spent so far has provided a cement floor, rest rooms, a heating system, new

Partial Blow-By-Blow Account of Battle Between Senator McCarthy and Pearson

Washington, Dec. 14—(P)—Physical violence erupted between Senator Joe McCarthy and Columnist Drew Pearson the other night. The two had different versions and the only acknowledged witness wasn't talking.

McCarthy, the Republican senator from Wisconsin, promised to tell his colleagues something about Pearson today. But he said he wouldn't talk about their encounter.

The two are not buddies. McCarthy has been conducting a months-long campaign against what he calls Communist influences in the state department and elsewhere. Pearson has written and broadcast critically of the senator.

The incident occurred—the accounts jibed in this, at least—at the swank Sulgrave Club on Tuesday night. Another columnist and radio commentator, Fulton Lewis, Jr., broadcast the first public account of it last night.

The pertinent post-fight quotes: McCarthy: "I smacked him with my open hand and knocked him down on his hips. I didn't punch him."

Pearson: "The senator kicked me twice in the groin. As usual he hit below the belt. But his pugilistic powers are about as ineffectual as his senate speeches. I was not hurt."

Pearson said the encounter ended when Senator Richard M. Nixon, California Republican, intervened. McCarthy said Nixon saw the fracas but didn't separate them.

Board of Control Of Library Meets

The December meeting of the board of control of the Warren Library Association was held with eight members and the librarian in attendance. The routine reports were read and accepted.

R. W. Steber announced that an oil painting of J. P. Jefferson is being presented to the library.

The librarian, Mrs. Lopez, reported that a new picture is to be placed in the Wetmore Gallery as a memorial and, also, that a very fine reference collection will be presented as another memorial. The details of these very welcome gifts will be published when the picture and books are received.

After a general discussion of library matters, the meeting was adjourned.

Gifts Acknowledged By Children's Aid

At the monthly meeting of board members of the Children's Aid Society of Warren County, acknowledgement was made of some splendid gifts from East street and Johnson Cub Packs.

The boys presented to Miss Claire Elliott for the society a great many toys they had assembled, repaired and repainted. These will be distributed, along with other gifts, in the agency's remembrance of needy children of the county under its care.

It was reported, also, that some gifts have been made to the society's Christmas Fund, but more will be gratefully accepted by Miss Elliott to assist with her long shopping list.

The estimated daily population of Rockefeller Center in New York City is 160,000.

December Blood Donors Total 128

Yesterday at Red Cross headquarters, 404 Market street, 128 pints of whole blood were collected by the bloodmobile in an all-out effort to meet sharply increased demands from the Department of Defense. Every participating area is obligated to handle additional requests for vitally needed whole blood.

Those men and women who responded for the December collection take a coveted place on the Red Cross list of blood donors. Members of the armed services and civilians in distress will one day have reason to thank every blood donor for giving blood to save lives.

A complete report of blood donors and volunteer workers will appear in the Times-Mirror early next week.

U. S. D. A. Council Of County Holds December Meeting

The December meeting of the Warren County USDA Council was held in the office of the Warren County Soil Conservation District, Court House, Warren. The meeting was in charge of Harold W. Geiger, chairman.

Following routine business, Don Taft, U. S. Forest Service, announced the sale of Christmas trees by the Warren Field and Stream Club. These trees have been purchased from the Allegheny National Forest on competitive bid basis and are being removed to permit the building of a fire break and improvement of a wildlife habitat. These trees are located on the old Schuler farm along the Sill Run road.

The program for the group was presented by Mr. Stanley Laurence, chairman of the board of directors, Warren County Soil Conservation District. Mr. Laurence explained the provisions of the Pennsylvania Legislative Act No. 217 of 1945 under which County Commissioners can declare any county to be a soil conservation district. Warren County was declared a District on April 2, 1948, by the local Board of Commissioners. He also explained the procedures for selection of District Directors and noted the fact that the local District now has signed working agreements with five co-operating agencies. They are the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, the Penna. Dept. of Forests and Waters, the Penna. Dept. of Highways, the Penna. Fish Commission and the Penna. Game Commission. A number of questions were raised by the group in order to clarify some points in the District setup. Those present included: M. D. Rhodes, Rural Electrification Administration, Don Taft, Forest Service, O. C. Tritt, Agricultural Extension Service, Harold W. Geiger, Soil Conservation Service, and Stanley Laurence, Warren County Soil Conservation District.

NATIONAL EMERGENCY CLAMPS

By proclaiming a national emergency President Truman would reassert his powers to seize and operate radio stations and other communications facilities.

He would also declare anew his right to (a) seize foreign ships in American waters, (b) extend the work-day for many defense workers and (c) arm American merchant vessels.

A congressman who attended Wednesday's crisis conference at the White House in Washington, made available to The Associated Press a list of 17 powers he said would come into being if an emergency is proclaimed.

The lawmaker later said the powers already rest with the president, either under a pre-World War II emergency declaration or later laws enacted by congress.

Thus a new proclamation would be almost exclusively a psychological step.

Power to seize radio stations in time of war or emergency is written into the Federal Communications act. Another section of the same act was brought into play during the last war in ordering stations to go off the air during air raid alerts—most of them practice affairs.

When the Omaha Red Cross Blood Bank's mobile unit visited the Nebraska State Penitentiary recently the nurses were startled to find that many of the prisoners' arms were covered with adhesive tape, says The Reader's Digest. Visions of an epidemic of skin disease or of medieval prison punishment flashed through their minds, and finally one of them asked an inmate about it. "Well, ma'am," the prisoner explained sheepishly, "most of the fellows have tattooing on their arms. And they'd be ashamed to let you ladies see it."

Before long it will be too late to do your Christmas shopping early!

Tidioute Is Well Decorated For The Christmas Season

The community of Tidioute, with its spread of holiday lighting throughout the business section, presents a most inviting and charming view.

Christmas spirit throughout the community has been caught up with the idea that has made this attractive lighting scheme an annual affair.

A canopy of red, white and blue streamer lights, profusely decorated with evergreens, covers the streets. In addition, there is a beautifully decorated evergreen tree, topped by a large, brilliantly lighted star; and, at the head of Depot street, where Old Glory flutters in the breeze, a beautiful all-weather wreath has been placed on the Honor Roll.

Cash prizes are being offered by those in charge of the project for the best decorated homes in the community.

As a benefit for the holiday street-lighting fund, a round and square dance has been planned in the school gymnasium Friday night. Dancing will be from nine until one and tickets for the affair are very moderately priced.

Talent Recognition Show

The holiday season presents many natural and colorful scenes which tempt the photographer and the artist, such as the sparkling Christmas trees, the children hanging their stockings, or Pennsylvania's snow-covered hills.

As an incentive to these photographers and artists, Mrs. W. C. Fuellhart, chairman of the 1951 Woman's Club Talent Recognition Show, announces this fourth annual affair will be held May 17, 18 and 19.

Mrs. Fuellhart also states a ceramic display will again be part of the show, as will paintings, drawings and photographs.

This annual Talent Recognition

Show is sponsored by the Woman's Club on a non-commercial basis, for the purpose of offering the amateur an opportunity to display his talents and others, who appreciate beauty, the privilege of viewing the subjects.

Last year's show proved to be a great success, with 1,008 persons attending, and the chairman indicates the committee is planning on more entries and more spectators this year.

Many persons have been given a gift, not the time-wrapped type hanging on a Christmas tree, but the ability to create and the Woman's Club invites them to share this gift with others in the Talent Recognition Show in May.

Miss Marilyn Baker, 402 East Sycamore St., Evansville, Indiana, says HADACOL isn't good—it is absolutely wonderful. She says if she praised HADACOL every minute of the day, it would not be enough. Miss Baker's system was deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin, all of which HADACOL contains. Here is Miss Baker's statement: "I had been sickly for some time. I even at one time had to quit school because I was so weak and skinny. My nerves were bad and shaky. Then my mother started me taking HADACOL. It seemed like my appetite improved with the first dose and now since I have taken HADACOL for over 5 months I have gained 15 lbs. Now my nerves are just fine. I feel wonderful, thanks to HADACOL. I recommend HADACOL to all my friends."

HADACOL is So Effective because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to carry these precious Vitamins and Minerals to every organ of your body. Thousands whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B1, B2, Iron, and Niacin are benefiting from HADACOL.

Refuse Substitutes There is only one HADACOL. Don't let anyone tell you something else is "just as good." Insist on Genuine HADACOL. You risk nothing because HADACOL is sold only on a strict money-back guarantee. You'll feel better with the first few bottles you take or your money back. Trial size only $1.25. Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

Over Two Hundred Attend Christmas Program of High School Girls Club

The High School Girls Club had an attendance of 225 mothers and daughters for its annual Christmas program presented in the YWCA activities building.

Opening the program was a welcome to all by Frances Gruttaria, followed by singing of familiar carols by the entire group. For devotions, Jerry Gibson read "The Christmas Story from Luke and Louise Huckabone read the poem, "A Christmas Legend".

The choir, directed by Viola Lindmark and accompanied by Marian Whipple, entertained with three Christmas songs: "The Friendly Beasts, Sleep Holy Babe, and Silent Night."

The next number was a Style Show in charge of Dee Newmaker. Ann Spiedel and Evelyn Dahler. Santa Claus, played by Barbara Van Blos, came out on the stage, dug down in his mail bag and brought out a stack of letters. The letters were from the Warren Y-Teens requesting for Christmas various clothes they had seen at Betty Lee's. As each girl's letter was read she came out on the stage modeling the garment she wanted for Christmas. Models were Marge Wilson, Lois Radspinner, Joyce Allen, Tom Mitchell, Nancy Cannon, Carol Amacher, June Odmark, Sally Reed and Beverly Chapman. The skit was written by Dorothy McGarry and Barbara VanBlos. Mary Konestoba played appropriate music as the models came out on the stage and down the aisle.

The Dramatics class presented a short skit, "Getting Ready for Christmas". The main part of the skit was a play entitled "The First Christmas Morning". Girls taking part in this were Ann Akers, Doty Yaggie, Carolyn Eddy, Carol Weigle, Mary Elliott and Nancy Berdine.

The announcer introduced leaders of the interest groups to the mothers and they were applauded, thus thanking them for helping the girls every Monday evening for the past semester. In closing, all joined in singing "Silent Night". Santa Claus appeared again with candy for the mothers and daughters.

Following the program, sandwiches, cookies, punch and coffee were served. Thelma Carmody and her party-cooking class prepared and served the refreshments. While everyone was enjoying the refreshments, Adele Tranter and her radio class interviewed some of the mothers, daughters and teachers, using the tape recorder. Later they played the recording back and gave them a chance to hear their own voices.

The gym was decorated with red and green streamers around the room, poinsettias, Santa Claus and a tree on the stage. The screens were covered and painted with Christmas scenes by Doris Sharp, member of the Charm class.

Members of the High School Girls Club want to thank everyone who helped make this program for their mothers a success, including their leaders, Betty Lee for the use of their clothes and Thelma Carmody and her class for the refreshments.

Christmas Party At Salem Church Is Pleasing Event

The various committees of the Willing Workers Class are being generously complimented on arrangements for the Christmas party held in Salem Evangelical United Brethren church, with Onward Class members as guests.

Mrs. Ernest Huper presented devotions, with the Christmas Story as her theme.

A brief business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Axel Larson, and other class officers, after which the meeting was turned over to the program chairman, Mrs. John Dahler. Sr., who presented a Christmas carol-singing contest.

All present were divided into groups of soloists, duos, trios and quartets, with prizes awarded those selected by the judges. A rising vote of appreciation was given Mrs. Dahler for her beautiful decorations, trees, pine boughs and twinkling, silver stars suspended from the ceiling.

Each person attending brought a gift, wrapped in white and attractively decorated, and placed it under the tree. These packages are to be packed and sent to children in the Lewisburg Orphans' Home.

ren in the Lewisburg Orphans' Home.

To climax the program, lights were turned out and everyone sang "Silent Night". The hostesses, Elizabeth Mader, Verna Mader, Ruth Thompson and Lillian Baldensperger, served lunch, a small candle centering each plate. A social hour followed and the 30 persons are hoping the gathering may be repeated next year.

West Review Elects New Officers' Slate

West Review No. 4, in its regular business session in the S. F. of A. hall, elected the following officers to serve in the coming year:

President, Rose Kinkead; vice president, Emma Pepperman; recording secretary, Marjua Thayer; treasurer, Myrtle Rogers; chaplain, Lena Frarling; lady of ceremonies, Edith Check; financial secretary, Leonora Brooks; color bearers, Miriam Richardson and Matilda Hornstrom.

The meeting was preceded by a six o'clock tureen dinner. The next meeting, December 21, will be a six o'clock dinner, followed by the regular business session and Christmas party. Each one attending is asked to bring a 50-cent gift for exchange.

SURVIVAL UNDER ATOMIC ATTACK

Reprint of an official government booklet on the dangers of the A-bomb and how to meet them, submitted by the Publicity Committee of the Warren County Civil Defense Council.

(Editor's Note—Following is the fourth of a series of articles setting forth the true dangers of the atomic bomb and how steps can be taken to escape them. The articles are taken from an official U. S. government booklet, "Survival Under Atomic Attack.")

Starting right now you should go in for "fire-proof housekeeping." Don't let trash pile up around your house and always keep it in covered containers.

If you know you have time when an alert sounds be sure to shut the doors and windows and pull down the shades. This will help keep out fire sparks.

If you have shutters or venetian blinds or heavy drapes, they will also provide some protection against harm from flying glass.

Several other household precautions should be taken promptly. Atomic bombs set off high above ground seldom causes breaks in underground gas or water mains. However, shaking and twisting of the buildings by the blast wave sometimes snaps off household inlets at the point where they enter the basement. This may allow gas or oil to flow into your cellar.

To lessen the danger of fires and explosions that could result from this leakage, you should throw the electric switch that shuts off your oil burner.

Your local utility companies can give you detailed instructions about your gas, pilot lights, and so on.

If you have a coal burning furnace or wood stove, be sure to close all its fuel and draft doors. In other words, do all you can to prevent sparks and to put out or cover open flames.

Should attack come without warning, take these same precautions right after the raid. Keep at least one flashlight handy and don't strike a match to light your way down into a darkened basement. Gas or oil fumes may be present and an explosion could result.

Knowing how to protect yourself from blast, heat, and explosive radioactivity, only one major problem remains: That is how to avoid harm from lingering radioactivity.

Explosive radioactivity bursts from the bomb at the time of explosion and lasts for only little more than a minute.

Lingering radioactivity remains for a longer time, from a few minutes to weeks or months, depending on the kind of radioactive material.

Lingering radioactivity may become a danger when atomic bombs are exploded on the ground, underground, or in the water. Air bursts leave no dangerous lingering radioactivity.

Most lingering radioactivity comes from left-over bomb wastes, or "ashes," technically called fission products. They consist of countless billions of fragments, or pieces of atoms split up in the explosion. Smaller and usually less dangerous, amounts of lingering radioactivity may be thrown off by scattered atoms of uranium or plutonium that fails to split up when the bomb goes off.

These totally invisible radioactive particles act much the same as ordinary, every-day dust. When present in any real quantity, they are scattered about in patches and contaminate, or pollute, everything they fall on, including people. While they can be removed easily from some surfaces, they stick very tightly to others. It is practically impossible to get absolutely all of them out of household-corners and cracks. Most of the time, it is far easier to prevent pollution than it is to remove it.

In spite of the huge quantities of lingering radioactivity loosed by atomic explosions, people fortunately are not very likely to be exposed to dangerous amounts of it in most atomic raids.

Since high-level bursts do the greatest damage, that is the kind we can expect most often. When atomic weapons are exploded in mid-air, a violent, upward surge of super-hot gases and air quickly sweeps practically all the radioactive ashes and unexploded bits of bomb fuel high into the sky. Most of them are carried harmlessly off in the drifting bomb clouds. High-level explosions definitely will not create "areas of doom," where no man dares enter, and no plant can grow. In fact, they will leave very little radioactivity on the ground, even near the point of explosion. Fire fighters and rescue teams can move promptly toward the center of destruction with little danger of facing harmful radiation.

And regardless of all you may have heard or read concerning the dangers of radioactive clouds, after the first minute and a half there is actually little or nothing to fear from those produced by high-level bursts. While most of the radioactive materials swept up into the sky eventually fall back to earth, they are so widely and so thinly spread that they are very unlikely to offer any real dangers to humans. Thousands of bombs would have to be set off in the air before serious ground contamination would be found over really large areas. There was no ground-level pollution of any importance following either of the two Japanese atomic bombings. It was said earlier that 15 per cent of the Japanese A-bomb deaths or injuries were caused by radioactivity. But not one of them was caused by the lingering kind. Explosive radioactivity caused them all.

Drop In Number of Highway Fatalities In State Encouraging To Authorities

Heading into the final weeks of 1950, highway safety authorities were winning the tough struggle for survival on Pennsylvania's roads.

T. Elmer Transeau, executive director of the Governor's Highway Safety Committee, revealed that the present death rate of five persons for every 100 million miles of vehicular travel was the best record ever posted in this Commonwealth.

"Considering the crowded centers of population and the tremendous volume of traffic plying our streets and highways, this low mortality rate is most remarkable," declared Transeau.

Actually, he explained, the record places Pennsylvania right out front in the parade of states, because others with still lower death rates are not comparable to the Keystone state.

"Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Iowa, Minnesota and Washington all boast lower rates of traffic fatalities," he said, but motorists in those states are not faced with the hazards which apply here.

States with highway conditions comparable to those in Pennsylvania, he pointed out, all show higher rates of fatality for the first three-quarters of 1950. New York had a death rate of 5.6 per 100 million vehicle miles; Ohio had 6.2; California, 6.7; while Illinois and Michigan both had registered a 6.8 mark. These figures are the latest released by the National Safety Council.

"The most encouraging feature of Pennsylvania's record, however," Transeau pointed out, "is the four per cent drop in deaths on our streets and highways this year compared to last. Only seven states in the nation were able to show an improvement over 1949's mortality rate, and Pennsylvania was the only large, heavily populated, industrial state to show a diminishing toll. Death claimed more victims on the roads of the 41 other states this year than last, the average being an 11% increase over 1949.

"Our record thus far gives hope that we shall finish the year 'in the black,' as we designate a year with a highway death toll less than the previous one."

However, Director Transeau disclosed that one phase of the fatality statistics was discouraging. "A total of 44 more drivers and occupants of automobiles and trucks met death on highways in rural areas thus far this year than at this time in 1949. The overall figures for our cities and towns reflect considerable improvement, but we are losing the battle for highway safety out in the country roads."

The explanation, Transeau believes, lies in the strenuous efforts exerted toward safety education in Pennsylvania's more populous regions, while no such crusades have been waged in rural districts.

Death rate of North Carolina is the lowest of any state east of the Mississippi River, 7.9 per thousand.

At Verkhoyansk, Siberia, the month of January averages 58 degrees below zero.

Borough's New Fact-Finding Committee

measures. The Engineers take the position that the Kinzua Dam will forever solve Warren's flood problem, and that so long as the dam is on the books as an "authorized project" they could not recommend allotment of funds for local protection facilities here such as were constructed at Bradford and Johnsonburg.

The committee faces the difficult task of resolving two widely divergent views: (1) the dam should be built as the only practical solution to our flood problems; and (2) the dam should not be built, regardless of its benefits as a flood protection measure, because it would forever block the Allegheny river for through navigation.

Putman, who has long identified himself as a proponent of through navigation, termed the proposed Kinzua Dam a "monstrosity," and said that the effect of the dam, not only on Warren, but for the county and for the entire region must be considered.

He said that, despite reports to the contrary, building of the dam with its fluctuating water level would forever block the Allegheny river valley to through navigation, and also asserted that the Army Engineers want the dam more for abatement of water pollution than they do for flood control.

Putman also claimed that the Engineers had drawn up plans for a series of smaller dams on tributary streams, similar to the Tionesta Creek Dam, for flood protection, but that these plans were sidetracked when the engineers "got the bug" to build the Allegheny Reservoir.

Committee members indicated they will make a thorough investigation of any other possible alternative to the dam, and also will seek information on what effect plans for a diversion channel at Chautauqua Lake, also proposed by the Engineers, might have on the flood situation at Warren.

Throughout the two-hour session, committee members offered various suggestions on what the group can do and where factual information might be obtained. The meeting was then adjourned, with the time and the date for the next session to be set by Chairman Yagge.

Penn'a Striving To Regain Standing As Lumber Producer

Harrisburg.—(P) — Pennsylvania is striving to regain its one-time supremacy as the nation's number one lumber-producing state.

The department of forests and waters today disclosed progress of an ambitious new reforestation and conservation program designed to restore thousands of acres of long-neglected woodlands.

During the decade from 1880 to 1970, the commonwealth ranked as the top lumber-producing area of the country. Today, the state ranks 18th.

Pennsylvania's forest acreage which once covered the commonwealth's 23,828,800 acres, with some of the finest timber in existence, now has diminished to slightly more than 15 million acres of second growth forests. Of the original virgin forests, only an approximate 3,000 acres remain in various sections of the state.

The forests and waters department's new reforestation program is aimed at starting tree growths on millions of acres of unused scrub lands.

The department reported that during the past two years it has distributed some 23,505,000 forest tree seedlings throughout the state. An additional 30,000,000 are being prepared at state nurseries for distribution during 1951.

Under its program to recover scrub mountain land, the department has now acquired nearly 1,800,000 acres of forest lands in 38 counties. Extensive reforestation and wildlife programs are underway in these areas.

Another important reforestation project has been the establishment of 80 seed-stations throughout the state to furnish locally grown seed for planting purposes.

In addition, state service foresters have aided some 2,745 individuals to manage and service 128,711 acres of private woodlands in 40 counties.

The department also disclosed it has completed negotiations for the acquisition of 48,206 acres of additional forest lands.

Printz Employees Enjoy Annual Party

Employees of the local Printz Company store enjoyed a dinner party given by the management in the private dining room of the Blue and White Restaurant last evening, marking the 65th pre-Christmas season for the company.

Mrs. Pearl Johnson, and Miss Alice Anderson were in charge of arrangements, which included a gift exchange and a great deal of hilarity when some of the unusual gifts were opened. Table decorations reflected the holiday spirit.

After the dinner, everyone enjoyed cards and there was an informal discussion of matters pertaining to store activities.

doors and windows and other necessary materials. In addition to this, the canteen already has in use $900 worth of equipment such as a public address system, record player, crystal ball for lighting purposes, spot lights, etc. These were purchased from proceeds of canteen dances which have been held in the YMCA gym for the past year and a half.

The greatest need for the canteen at this time is acquisition of chairs for the building. The committee has set as a goal the purchase of 200 folding metal chairs at a cost of $3.50 each. The youth committee will be soliciting individuals and businessmen hoping that many persons will donate enough for at least one chair.

The youth committee is also planning now for a membership campaign. Young people in Beaty Junior High, Warren High School, or up to 21 years of age are invited to join the canteen. Dues will be one dollar a year which will admit members to the canteen events free except for special dances.

Mrs. James Bailey and Mrs. John Newmaker are chairmen of the committee planning the January 27th grand opening.

In the far northwest, another threat appeared in the growing strength of Red jet fighter planes streaking into action from Manchuria.

Monthly Session of Soil Conservation Directors Is Held

Directors of the Warren County Soil Conservation District held their regular monthly meeting at the Court House. Chairman Lawrence called the meeting to order. Routine business was discussed and the secretary-treasurer was ordered to pay outstanding bills. L. L. Johnson, county commissioner member of the directors reported on the tour of conservation farms on November 21. He stated that, despite bad weather, he felt that everyone present learned more about conservation farming. Due to the fact that the January meeting date falls on the week of the Harrisburg farm show, it was decided to cancel the regular January meeting and meet again on February 13. Any problems arising during the next month will necessitate a special meeting. The secretary-treasurer asked for a written report from each of the five cooperating agencies to be used in preparing the district's annual report for 1950. Those present included: District Directors Stanley Lawrence, Allan P. Lindell, Carl G. Peterson, and L. L. Johnson; Clarence Bittenger, Pennsylvania Department of Forests and Waters; John Steimer, Pennsylvania Department of Highways; and Harold W. Geiger, Soil Conservation Service.

Committee Named For Baseball Czar

St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Major League club owners appointed a four-man committee today to search for a new commissioner to replace A. B. (Happy) Chandler, who again vowed that he would not resign.

The committee, composed of two men from the National and two from the American League, was instructed to begin screening candidates immediately and endeavor to bring back a report to the owners at their meeting next February.

The committee also has been empowered to offer a $75,000 a year salary to Chandler's successor. That amounts to a $10,000 increase over the salary paid to the present commissioner.

A club president who asked his name not be used, said the majority of the club owners voiced their preference for a man having no connection with baseball. The man also must be a "universally respected person possessing a judicial mind," he added.

This would tend to eliminate such heretofore outstanding candidates as Ford Frick, president of the National League; George Trautman, head of the minors, and Warren Giles, president of the Cincinnati Reds.

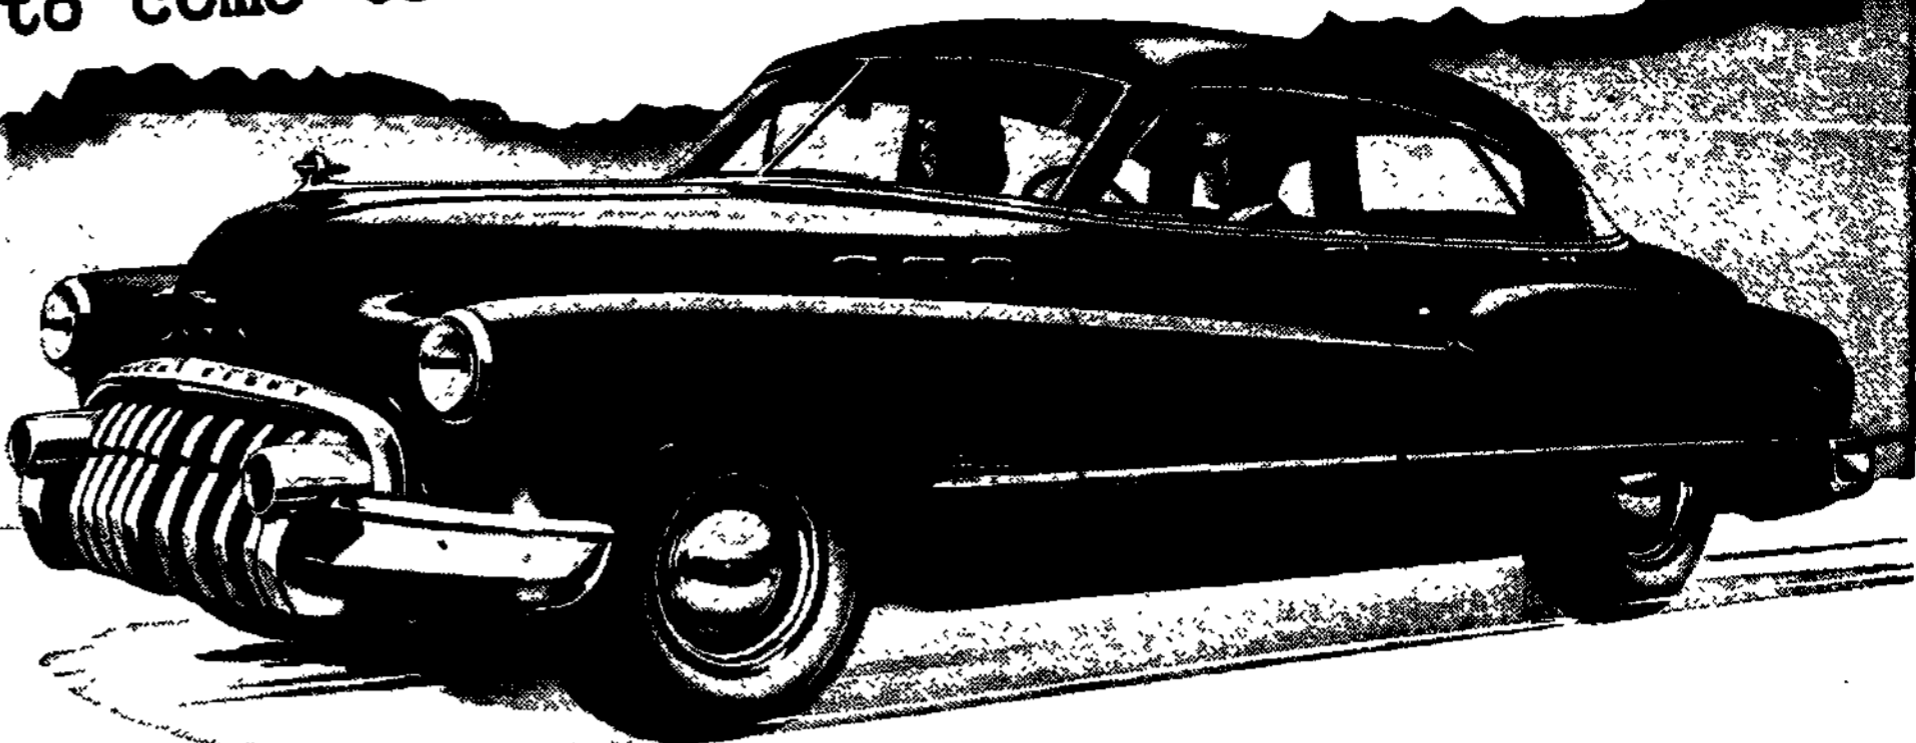

NAMED MANAGER

Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 14.—(AP)—Johnny Wise of Bradford, will be general manager next season of the Schenectady Blue Jays, the new member of the Eastern Baseball League. Wise was general manager of the Utica Blue Sox this year. Utica's franchise in the Class A loop was transferred to Schenectady last week. He has been a general manager in the Philadelphia Phillies' farm system for the past five years. He started as manager of the Bradford team in the PONY League and later was with the Terre-Haute, Ind., club in the Three-I League.

Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their pocketbooks

There's been a lot of talk in recent weeks about "the buying power of the dollar"—past, present and future.

We can't foretell the future—but we can tell you this right now:

You'll look a long way before you'll find a car that offers as much for the money as you can get in a 1950 Buick.

Close to half a million of these cars have been built and sold this year.

Close to half a million people have checked their features and prices against the field—and decided they'd better buy Buick.

As to prices—they start down below some sixes. And whether you price the SPECIAL, the SUPER or the ROADMASTER, you'll find, on a cents-per-pound basis, that few other cars can touch them for value.

And this is for sure! When it comes to performance—ride—the way they handle and hold the road—and thrifty use of fuel and oil—Buicks have never been finer.

That's another way of saying that coil springs on all four wheels—Dynaflo*—torque-tube drive—and Buick's high-compression, high-economy Fireball power produce an out-of-this-world combination.

So if you want your dollars to do extra duty—the time to act is now.

Look at the price tags—look at the features—sample the power and thrill that you get for your money—and you'll know what we mean.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Egg Prices Take Humpty-Dumpty Spill In Many Cities; Other Foods Move Up

By The Associated Press

Egg prices took a humpty-dumpty spill in many cities this week, but changes in other foods were mostly upward.

Beef items, some cuts of pork, canned coffee and several fresh vegetables were higher.

The drop in retail egg prices was very irregular across the country. In some cities, like New York, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, the red tint ranged as much as 16 cents a dozen. But in others the declines were much smaller, and in some, top grade eggs at mid-week were still being quoted a few cents above last Friday's levels.

At Los Angeles, a spokesman for a large store chain said "eggs are still in very tight supply here but prices may go down 5 to 8 cents a dozen by the end of the week."

Several factors confused the egg price and supply situation. Sharp price gains last week were blamed on storms which delayed shipments of eggs to terminal markets, heavy military buying in the mid-west, depletion of cold storage stocks, and most of all, brisk consumer demand.

But egg prices are very sensitive to consumer price-resistance, and when shoppers began to trim their purchases early this week supplies started backing up on wholesalers and the market turned weak. Supplies from county-collecting points picked up as weather troubles eased.

Fresh eggs in the railroad began arriving in some eastern cities from Canadian shippers anxious to take advantage of the high prices. There was talk of eggs on the way even from Holland and Argentina.

THE MARKETS

New York, Dec. 14—(P)—Buyers became highly selective today in the stock market and forced prices into a mixed pattern. Textile, soft drink and communication shares were sought at rising prices while motors and radio-television issues drifted lower. Both Coca-Cola and Pepsi Cola responded to the New York Coca-Cola Bottling Co. price increase announced yesterday. "Coke" was up around a dollar and Pepsi added about 50 cents. American Woolen and Wyandotte Worsteds put on about a dollar in response to disclosures of heavy Army Quartermaster Corps textile requirements. International Telephone was active and higher, a continuation of the spurt yesterday when it was the day's most active issue. Its popularity resulted from a cash and stock dividend declaration, the first since 1922.

Connellsville, Dec. 14 (P)—City council today considered an ordinance that would eliminate a 1930 occupation tax and substitute a $5 per capita tax.

COACH RESIGNS

Kenneth E. Wolfe, football coach at Franklin high school for the past seven years, has resigned his position, and has recommended that the school board name his assistant, Alec Dutkin, to the post. He attributed his resignation to a football "season turned sour." Wolfe will continue as assistant basketball coach until the end of the term.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

New York—(P)—An assault is underway today on the cost of living which threatens to get out of hand.

The weapons being discussed at two top-level conferences in Washington today: Federal controls over wages and prices.

But some businessmen question whether attempts to freeze wages and prices will get at the real core of the inflation problem—the rapidity with which purchasing power is outstripping production of goods.

Many contend that wage-price controls merely send inflation underground and do not control it. Inflationary pressure piles up and explodes into black markets—meaning worse shortages and higher prices.

One of the two Washington conferences today is on the general subject of controls, the other on the specific question of the price of automobiles.

Auto makers are summoned to discuss with officials of the economic stabilization agency the refusal of General Motors and Ford to take back the recently announced price hikes. Clearly in the air is the threat that if the auto companies won't "hold the price line," the government will roll back prices for them. Criticism of the price hikes is tied to the record earnings the companies have been reporting.

This making "a guinea pig for price cutbacks" out of the auto industry is sharply criticized by young Henry Ford, who wants instead a general program applied equally to all industries, if any controls are necessary at all. At the general level, the president is discussing with congressional leaders the proclaiming of a national emergency, as a preliminary to wage and price controls among other things.

This is a course widely urged of late by people with fixed incomes and those with semi-fixed incomes—such as most white-collar workers. They are pinched hardest as the cost of living climbs.

Some sort of wage-price controls—whether general or selective—seems likely. Anticipation of them has been one of the chief factors back of the recent whirl of rising prices and wage scales. But how general controls will be is another question.

Some commodities have gone way out of line with the rest, and may be fair game for any cutback. Farmers, on the other hand, feel most of their products are pretty well protected by the law which says that ceilings must not be below parity or below prices prevailing between May 24 and June 24. Only cotton, cottonseed oil, wool, rice and some meats are far enough above to offer attractive targets for controls.

No rollback in the cost of eating, therefore, seems unlikely—at least from controls at the farm level.

Critics of price controls as a panacea for inflation still fight hard. They think the nation is taking the wrong way by turning to controls.

Instead, they urge that the government increase its encouragement to expansion of production of the nation's factories, mills and farms, and its discouragement of spending.

Along the first line, the national security resources board today gave the green light to 18 steel companies to spend $470 million to expand their plants and add some 5 1/2 million tons annually to the nation's steelmaking capacity. The companies get priority rights on materials needed for expansion, and also get federal tax benefits on their investments.

On the second line of attack—discouraging spending—the way is going to be rougher and far less popular.

Chief steps urged are: 1. Still tighter credit controls; 2. Much higher taxes; 3. Increased savings—some even favor compulsory savings at the source, by withholding from paychecks for involuntary purchasing of government bonds.

The hilly of the valley is regarded as the flower for May and the emerald is the birth stone.

Lion Offense Led By O'Bara, Orsini

State College.—Outstanding example of the conversion job wrought by Rip Engle in his first season as head coach, Vince O'Bara and Tony Orsini emerged today as the offensive heroes of Penn State's unexpectedly good 1930 football campaign.

O'Bara, a tall back in the single wing until Engle made him a T-quarterback, combined his running and passing to such good advantage that he carried off total offensive honors with 692 yards in 140 plays for an average of 4.9 yards per try. He completed 35 of 103 passes for 640 yards and three touchdowns.

Orsini, who was shifted from the wingback position in the single wing to the left halfback role in Engle's wing-T, was the work-horse of the team, piling up 563 yards in 144 carries for an average of 3.9 yards per try. He won scoring honors for the year with five touchdowns, or 30 points, enrolling his six-pointers in five different games.

ROCKVIEW IS STILL SEEKING A WARDEN

Pittsburgh, Dec. 14 (P)—Dr. J. W. Claudy, warden of both the Western State Penitentiary here and the Rockview Branch near Bellefonte said today that Walter A. Kearney of the Pennsylvania State College has declined appointment as superintendent at Rockview.

"We have no other candidates in mind," Dr. Claudy added. "We have had a rough time trying to fill this position but we are confident we will come out the right chute."

Kearney, head of the department of teacher placement at Penn State told the penitentiary's board of trustees in a letter "I wish to remain in the field of education."

He had been the unanimous choice of the board for the position. Kearney's letter will come before the board of trustees at a meeting here today.
